

idiCo, the newly formed management company for French SMEs and mid-caps created from Omnes' private equity activities, is continuing to strengthen its team.

Paris, 1 December 2023 – idiCo, the newly formed management company for French SMEs and mid-caps created from Omnes' private equity activities, is strengthening its Small Cap team by recruiting Jean-Marie Giannettini as Investment Director.

Jean-Marie Giannettini- Investment Director

Jean-Marie joins idiCo as Investment Director in the small cap team.

He began his career in private equity in 2007 at Natixis Investissement (later NiXEN). In 2011, he joined Siparex's small cap team in Paris, before joining Crédit Mutuel Equity in 2014 in expansion and buyout capital in Paris. There, he made investments in the industrial, BtoB services and retail sectors and sat on the boards of portfolio companies.

Jean-Marie is a graduate of Neoma Business School and holds a Master's degree in Financial Engineering from Paris-1 Panthéon Sorbonne.

At idiCo, he reports to Laurent Espic and Frédéric Mimoun, who co-manage the small cap team.

About idiCo

Formed from Omnes Capital's private equity activities, idiCo, a subsidiary of IDI Group, is a major player in private equity and private debt and is authorised by the French Financial Markets Authority (AMF). idiCo invests in French SMEs and mid-caps by acquiring minority and majority shareholdings or through bond financing to support them in creating responsible value. The company works across three main strategies: lower-mid cap, small cap and private debt. idiCo manages nearly €1.0 billion in assets across 31 portfolio investments and has supported over 110 companies in recent years. The company operates mainly in the healthcare, B2B services, technology and industrial sectors.
